Jerry has just authored a book titled, "LiveCAREfully – The Importance of Caring in a Life of Significance" which will be available following Jerry's message.

Description of Keynote Address

Jerry Traylor will challenge us to look within in discovering the incredible abilities which we all possess. Each of us are capable of touching our world in a positive manner, if we look beyond what most see, if we look in our hearts and souls rather than looking in the mirror. Our individual uniqueness need not be a burden which binds us. It should be a key to greatness. Jerry shares a pictorial essay of his successful run across America and incredible journey through life!

Jerry offers a gratis talk to a non-profit organization in the same locale as your conference. This makes you look good and adds value to the event. Jerry also offers a money back guarantee if his program is not powerful and does not exceed your expectations.
